What Is Your Greatest Desire?

A little girl was visiting with her older cousins. When Sunday morning came, it was decided that the little girl would attend her older cousins Sunday school class. The class had been assigned the task of memorizing the 23 Psalm. When no one volunteered to recite the Psalm, the teacher called upon the little girl, who had been waving her hand to get the teacher's attention. "Do you know the 23 Psalm," the teacher asked? The little girl nodded, stood, and said "The Lord is my Shepherd, that's all that I want!"

How about you, is He all that you want?
